

RHEUMATISM PREVALENT.

Caused by the Sudden Changes of Temperature.

PEOPLE WHO HAVE FOUND RELIEF.

Rheumatism is more prevalent here than ever before. When this disease fastens upon an individual with its soreness and pain, swelling the joints, rendering him helpless in his movements, and shattering his usefulness, he is in the grasp of a cruel enemy. The slight pain in the back, pain or stiffness of the joints or muscles, is a warning indication of an impending condition of the blood, a low state of health, and if not attended to at once, means rheumatism.

Rheumatism can now be relieved and cured.

Since the introduction of Favorite Remedy, by Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., there has been fewer sufferers than ever before.

Favorite Remedy drives out rheumatic poison from the blood, restores the circulation, strengthens the nerve power.

The best proof of its value is the good it has done.

"I was afflicted with inflammatory rheumatism for fifteen years, writes Mr. E. F. Taylor, of East Nassau, N. Y. Under the treatment of Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy I grew worse. Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy helped me from the time I first used it, and entirely cured me. Have felt no trace of the disease since, and that was three years ago."

The beautiful daughter of Mr. James McFarland, of McDonough, Ia., was helpless for months with sciatic rheumatism. After a few doses of Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, she began to grow better, appetite improved, slept well, and continuing its use, she was cured.

"I was confined to my bed with rheumatism near my heart, writes Mr. C. L. Seaver, of Birmingham, Conn., and used Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy but a short while before I was free from it."

Mr. G. Lansing, of Troy, N. Y., had rheumatism in his leg, and he had to be turned over in bed. After using Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy but a short while was restored to health.

What reason then for suffering with rheumatism or neuralgia. This medicine will help you if given a trial.

SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKERS DISCUSSING HOW TO TAKE CARE OF IT.

Pleasant Sessions of the Ohio State Sunday School Convention—Happy and Interesting Addresses and Soulful and Inspiring Music—Convention Personnel.

Over three hundred delegates to the Ohio Sunday School convention had enrolled their names with the reception committee and been assigned for entertainment this morning and there are probably as many more who are stopping with friends or at hotels, who have not registered. Six hundred is a low estimate of the number of visitors in the city today and still new recruits are arriving.

The delegates are a courteous, clean, good looking set and they seem to be getting more genuine enjoyment out of the convention and their associations here than anybody that has been in town for a considerable period of time. The list of visitors embraces all ages of both sexes. Prosewers are plentiful and bald headed old deacons who taught Sunday school half a century ago are fairly represented, together with an attractive galaxy of good looking young ladies who direct the youthful mind in the Sabbath schools of Ohio today. Everybody is enthusiastic and wide awake.

At the first regular business session Tuesday afternoon Rev. H. A. Schaffner of Cleveland, a practical looking old fellow, who seems to be just bubbling over with common sense ideas, spoke on the theme, "The Use of the Eye and the Imagination in Teaching." He wanted more illustration and more object lessons for the eye and less abstract reasoning in ponderous language, for the teaching of the youthful mind the lessons of religion.

Hon. O. T. Corson, state school commissioner, who is quite a Sunday school man, spoke vigorously with good effect on "Some elements of success in public school teachers which should characterize Sabbath school teachers." He thought as much care should be employed in selecting teachers for Sunday schools as for the public schools and he did not believe that a Sunday school teacher who was a success at a church school would be a success in the Sunday school room. He also wanted some discretion and some life manifested in the reading of the scriptures. He thought not hollow "cheerfulness."

Prof. H. M. Hamill, one of the leaders in literary and Sunday school work of Illinois, gave a normal lesson on the subject of "The Sunday school recitation."

"Sunday school management" was the topic of a talk by Mr. Lewis Miller, of Akron.

Evening Session.

Tuesday evening Prof. E. O. Excell opened with a half hour's song service. The church was packed from the pipe organ to the south wall and everybody seemed to have his voice with him. Such music has never been heard in Canton since the chorus of the morning stars that they just seemed to let themselves out to the last note. The effect was sublime as they sang.

After the singing Rev. Edmonds on behalf of the people of Canton and the First Methodist church extended a welcome to the visitors in an eloquent address.

President E. S. Lewis, D. D., of Cincinnati, responded on behalf of the convention and then Rev. W. G. Moorehead, D. D., of Xenia, a professor in the Theological Seminary, spoke on "Our Inspired Text Book." Mr. Moorehead is a man of genius and soul and his effort was a masterpiece.

Prof. Hamill presented greetings from Illinois and after a song the meeting adjourned.

TODAY'S MEETINGS.

"Love not sleep, lest thou come to poverty: Open thine eyes and thou shalt be satisfied with bread," with the scriptures, and accordingly a large number of the delegates arose before breakfast this morning and appeared at the church at 6 o'clock for early prayer meeting. The session was led by Rev. F. M. Whitlock of Monroeville and quite an interest was manifested in the services.

At 8:30 o'clock the convention proper opened with a workers conference under the direction of Prof. J. S. Royer of Versailles. A number of good points for workers were brought out at this conference and then William G. Doering of Cincinnati took the platform and spoken enthusiastically on the subject of "The Convention for Teachers." He said that the convention was a great thing and that it was a great thing to be a part of it.

Rev. C. N. Pond of Oberlin, statistical secretary submitted his report which showed that out of a total of 1,134,037 children in the Ohio Sunday schools have gathered in 641,118. Including teachers and officials the Sunday school rolls show 737,819 names or 30 per cent of the State's entire population.

Rev. Lewis of Cincinnati, chairman of the executive committee; L. D. Boyer of Swanton, treasurer of the Association; and General Secretary Marion Lawrence of Toledo, also gave in their reports with acceptance. After some little discussion on plans of work the convention adjourned for dinner.

WORKERS' CONFERENCES.

At the noon hour today a series of workers' conferences were held at different churches in the city, where plans were discussed and ideas advanced for the better equipment of those who participated in their respective labors. The pastors met in Simpson M. E. church and were led by Rev. W. F. McCauley of Dayton. Trinity Reformed church was given over to the Sunday school superintendent. The primary workers held forth in the Trinity Lutheran church with Mrs. J. S. Osterander of Brooklyn, presiding. Prof. F. V. Islet of Columbus, editor of day school text books, directed the higher teachers' meeting in the Baptist church.

At all of the conferences luncheon was served by ladies from the different congregations in Canton and there was a general good time.

A SUNDAY CASE.

Mike Cavanaugh Arrested for Selling Liquor on the Lord's Day.

Anna Boyle, an Alliance woman, wrote out an affidavit Wednesday morning charging Mike Cavanaugh of Jefferson street with selling liquor on Sunday, June 11. Mike was arrested and he was released on his own recognizance till Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock when he will be heard before the mayor. It seems Anna worked a short time for Mike and some controversy between herself and another party arose, and she had Cavanaugh arrested in consequence thereof. Mike intends to fight the case to the hilt and as he believes he is being spitefully and maliciously prosecuted.

A PASTOR WEDDED.

Rev. William Williamson Married at Madisonburg, O.

Rev. Wm. Williamson, pastor of the United Brethren church of this city, was married at 3 p. m. yesterday at Madisonburg, O., to Miss Alice M. Sonnedecker, in the presence of nearly one hundred invited guests. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. A. Dowling in the front lawn of the elegant home of the bride. The bride was very beautifully attired in a costume of cream color. The bride is a highly accomplished lady and well suited to be a minister's wife, being a fine, devoted Christian worker.

The happy couple were the recipients of many beautiful and costly presents. Some of the guests from a distance were: Rev. J. G. Baldwin and wife, Burbank, O.; Rev. D. Koshi and wife, Ashland, O.; Rev. C. F. Thompson and wife, Navarre, O.; Rev. W. S. Slusser and wife, Alliance, O.; Rev. H. A. Dowling and wife, Barbours, O.; Rev. R. C. Ward, Canton, O.; Prof. E. A. Gilmore and wife, Canfield, O.; Prof. H. Sonnedecker and wife, Tiffin, O.; W. H. McCammon and wife, J. M. Cogan and wife, G. G. Barnett and wife of Canton, O. Some very distinguished guests were also present from Wooster and elsewhere.

A most elegant supper was served after which the company dispersed, the happy couple coming to Canton to be in attendance at the State Sunday School convention now in session in the city. The new bride will be a happy addition to the working force of the church in this city.

THE SPANISH CARAVELS.

Will Be Given a Big Celebration at the World's Fair.

MONTREAL, June 21.—[Special.]—The Spanish Caravels, after their long and circuitous voyage, via Halifax and the chain of lakes, have weighed anchor at Montreal for a direct run to Chicago. The caravel is a light, round, old-fashioned ship, with a square root, rigged like a galley, and not much over a hundred tons burden.

They were formerly used by the Spanish and Portuguese as cruising vessels.

The caravels are promised a big celebration by the World's Fair directors.

J. J. CLARK FINED FOR ASSAULT AND BATTERY

Committed Upon the Person of General Sherwood—Clark Does Not Take the Witness Stand in His Own Defense, Having None to Make.

Judge Ambler and Attorney J. J. Grant tried hard to have the case of Ohio against J. J. Clark continued this morning when he was called before Judge J. F. Fawcett in court room No. 2, but as the state was ready to proceed and the defense could not successfully plead that they had not had ample time for preparation, the court decided to overrule the motion for a continuance. Attorney Grant made another effort to have the case continued on account of another case on trial in court room No. 1 in which he was interested, but as he had not produced this part in his argument in favor of a continuance it was decided to go ahead with the case. Mr. Grant going to attend to his other case. Judge Ambler conducted Clark's case unsolicited while Prosecutor Bow was assisted by Charles C. Upham.
